

YOUNG RIDERS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

NEW STUDENT
APPLICATION
FORM

ABOUT THE AWARD:

QMS Young Riders Scholarships are intended to offer support for young riders who have the passion and drive to compete but lack the financial resources to do so consistently throughout the year. Recipients will be selected based on their commitment and dedication to the sport.

The QMS Young Riders Scholarship is meant to identify future leaders within the equine industry and distinguish outstanding youth for their achievements. Candidates for the scholarship are those with an ongoing commitment and dedication to the equestrian sport, who serve as positive role models, and demonstrate characteristics aligned with positive sportsmanship principles.

QMS Young Riders Scholarships have a rolling application deadline, so please apply at any time. Awards will vary based on fund availability and strength of applicants.

QMS Young Riders Scholarships recipients are selected by the Admissions Office in collaboration with the Equestrian Program Director.

APPLICANTS MUST:

- demonstrate a strong commitment to equestrian activities and competition
- provide a 200 word essay outlining their history in the sport
- include a resume or video of equestrian highlights
- provide at least one reference from an individual within the horse industry
